Pupil's absence during term time can seriously disrupt their continuity of learning. Not only do they miss the teaching provided on the days they are away, they are also less prepared for the subsequent lessons after their return. There is a possible risk of under-achievement which we all must seek to avoid.

Amendments to the Education (Pupil Registration England) Regulations state that Head teachers are now NOT ALLOWED to grant leave of absence during term time for holidays. The outcome for any parent removing their child from school could be a fixed penalty fine of £60 (both parents will be fined individually). Where there is more than one child in the same family who have an unauthorised holiday the fine will be multiple as each child's absence is classed as a separate offence.

Exceptional circumstances will be considered on an individual basis. Please make an appointment with the Head Teacher if you feel this is applicable to you.
